Adorable MinisBy Pen NameA whole lot of patterns for the price. Cute little present toppers or tiny gifts in a nice hardcover book. I am happy with this purchase although I have not made anything from the book yet.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Too many to pick from!By MI TravelerLots to choose fun! I made mini animals without enlarging the patterns.

500 Fun Little Toys is the perfect companion for crafters who are looking for witty, amusing projects to make. If you sew, felt, knit or crochet you're going to love this book! Undeniably charming, these small whimsical creations feature a variety of fun techniques, perfect for the seasoned crafter or someone looking to try a new technique. Author Nguyen Le uses leftover fabric, odd buttons, hand-stitching, embroidery, and beads to embellish her inventive designs. A handmade toy is perfect for a baby shower, birthday party or as a gift for someone special. Repurpose old items and use your stash to create a gift that is sweet and memorable!

If you happen to be a crafter who crochets, knits, felts and sews and would like to create a collection of handmade toys for that special little someone in your life, then '500 Fun Little Toys to Crochet, Knit, Felt Sew' is just the book you ll need to get started. ----The Detroit NewsThis book is full of uncomplicated cuteness. Charming patterns for dolls, animals, food, and children's games. You will be inspired to pick yarn from your stash and get going on one of the many patterns. The book is a tiny 6-by-6-inch size, which adds to the cuteness. Each pattern is only one or two pages. The pictures are great and the instructions are clear. This is a great little companion to add to any crafter's library. For any age that likes to create sweet handmade gifts, this book, with its 500 ideas and options, is all you need to make those gifts memorable. --Janice Davey, In Stitches

About the Author
Nguyen Le is from Lancaster, Penn. and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Photography from Drexel University in Philadelphia. She currently resides in Brooklyn, New York, where she designs elegant and witty knitted and felted accessories for her line, KnitKnit. At an early age, her mother taught her to sew which began her lifelong interest in the crafting process. Nguyen works with a variety of materials to create small pieces and projects. She tries to do her part to lessen waste, therefore fabric and yarn scraps are always kept for future projects. This collection of materials and love of crafting has made her into a toy-making expert. Nguyen has been featured on the Martha Stewart Show, and in magazines such as Interweave Felt, Knitscene, and InStyle. Her work appears on Etsy and on design blogs and has been recognized internationally. Her products can be found in boutiques, galleries, and museum shops across the USA.
