FUN book with CUTE ideas...By Kindle Customer I got this book because I really like Wendy Sue Anderson's work, and I was even more pleased when I got it. I like the clear pictures and that other card makers are featured too. There are some simple directions listed for each card, BUT, not specific cut sizes or anything too detailed (which was a bit of a bummer for someone like me who like to "cardlift" ideas with little brain power). I did, however, appreciate that they listed the supplies that they used for each card in the back of the book. This is a perfect book for those of you who like fun inspiration and probably for more experienced "cardlifters" who can repeat ideas without detailed instructions. I hope that Wendy get's the chance to do more books

Lots of adaptable creative ideasBy Robin L. DaisleyI'm quite pleased with this book. I'm always looking for ways to embellish cards and this book provides not only 365 card designs, but also supply/product information and templates. Each page spread includes photos of the finished cards and there is great variety - it's not heavy on any one type of design (i.e., not overly Victorian, floral, graphic, etc.) and there are card designs for every holiday or occasion. These designs could easily be adapted for use in gift wrapping, scrapbooking or other paper craft projects. As someone else's review stated, it might be nice if the templates were available online or possibly on a CD included with the book.

Just as greeting card shoppers spend time selecting a card that best reflects their personality and that of the receiver, paper crafters like to browse for inspiration to create a handmade card. That's why [i]Paper Crafts[/i] has gathered together the largest collection of card-making inspiration ever for this new book. With a card for each of the 365 days in a year, the theme of each card is a holiday, special occasion, or everyday occasion that is appropriate for the date. Each month has an opening page featuring a general occasion card or season-appropriate holiday card prepared by Wendy Sue Anderson of Heber, Utah, a talented designer who is a perennial favorite in the paper crafting world. She also explains a tip, technique or favorite tool that was used to make the card.
