I was give a large box of assorted material from an elderly lady that use to sew. The material is old fashion for making anything but it would be great for making braided rugs. I can't wait to get started. This is a great book and well written and very easy to understand.

Braided rugs are like family quilts each strip of cloth comes from a cast-off garment and tells a story all its own. Piecing the rug together is an act of weaving family memories into a useful heirloom you'll treasure forever. Nancy Bubel covers every step of the simple process, from planning the perfect size, shape, and color scheme to cutting your cloth strips, braiding them together, and finishing off your rug.
